Accreditation and Credits

Baptist Health provides accredited continuing education (CME/CE) to doctors, nurses and allied health professionals.

Baptist Health South Florida provides accredited continuing education (CME/CE) to doctors, nurses and allied health professionals.

Baptist Health South Florida is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Baptist Health has been re-surveyed by the ACCME and awarded Commendation for 6 years as a provider of CME for physicians.

Baptist Health South Florida designates this live activity for a maximum of 2.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This activity has been approved for 2.0 credit hours, CE Broker Course #20-696562, by the Florida Boards of Medicine and Osteopathic Medicine and the Florida Council of Physician Assistants.

PARTIAL CREDITS NOT AVAILABLE

Sign-in and completion of an evaluation form are required in order to receive a certificate. Accrediting organizations require that attendees remain in the symposium for the entire session, in order to receive continuing education credit for that day. Therefore, certificates for each session will be issued only to those who attend a session in its entirety. This does not apply to M.D.s and D.O.s.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ claimed by physicians attending live events certified and organized in the United States for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ can be claimed through the agreement on mutual recognition of credits between UEMS and AMA, considered as being equal to the European Continuing Medical Education Credits (ECMEC©) granted by the UEMS. One AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ is equivalent to one (1) hour of European EACCME Credit (ECMEC). Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Disclosure Policy

Baptist Health has a process in place to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in CME programming. Through this process Baptist Health identifies and, when applicable, resolves conflicts of interest of all individuals in a position to control or influence CME content, including faculty, conference directors, planners, content reviewers, CME Committee members and the CME Department staff. The CME Department is responsible for content review and, when necessary, makes modifications to resolve conflicts of interest so final presentations are fair and unbiased. These efforts are intended to affirm that the educational content is not controlled or influenced – directly or indirectly – by a commercial interest. As defined by ACCME, a commercial interest is any entity producing, marketing, reselling, or distributing healthcare goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests.
