All Financial Relationships

- Circumstances create a conflict of interest when an individual has an opportunity to influence or control CME content about products or services of an ineligible company with which he/she has a financial relationship.
- The ACCME defines an “ineligible company” as any entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.
- ACCME requires that faculty disclose all financial relationships that you have had in the past 24 months with ineligible companies.

For each financial relationship, enter the name of the ineligible company and the nature of the financial relationship(s). There is no minimum financial threshold; we ask that you disclose all financial relationships, regardless of the amount, with ineligible companies. You should disclose all financial relationships regardless of the potential relevance of each relationship to the education. NOTICE: Please do not disclose actual financial value of affiliations. Diversified mutual funds are not included in the definition of "commercial interest".
